DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN

EASTERN DATES TO NOVEMBER 3.

EASTERN STATES.

Horse Disease Abating.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The streets exhibit the usual activity to-day, showing an abatement of the horse distemper. Our lines are fast resuming travel. Encouraging reports are received from the stables. The total disappearance of the epidemic is looked for soon. The mortality among horses, however, continues. Cars will be run in Brooklyn to-day.

Probable Confession of Murder.

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 2.—The body of a young girl aged 13, named Day, who had been missing in Northwood since last week, was found last night. Franklin B. Evans, who was arrested on suspicion, accompanied the sheriff to some woods near by and pointed out the spot where the body was buried under a stump. An inquest is being held. It is probable that Evans has made a confession. Great excitement prevails in the village over the affair.

Recoining Gold.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2.—The Philadelphia mint has commenced melting one million one dollar gold pieces, to be converted into larger denominations. Twenty millions of these pieces are to be used.

Statue of Scott Unveiled.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The ceremony of unveiling the Scott statue took place at Central Park this afternoon, in the presence of a vast throng of spectators. The presentation address was made by Richard Irvin, and the acceptance speech by Comptroller Green. William Cullen Bryant delivered the oration.

The Woodhull Obscenity Case.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—A great deal of talk is occasioned about town this evening over the arrest of Woodhull and Claflin. The proceedings against them were first taken by L. C. Challis, a well known broker, who, last night, applied for their arrest for a grossly scandalous article on him. Warrants were accordingly issued, but before they could be executed, some one acting on behalf of Comstock, the famous enemy of obscene literature, had warrants issued against the ladies by U. S. Commissioner Osborne. The affidavits in the case were made by Albert Anderson, postoffice clerk, Mr. Wood, of Brooklyn, and F. W. Reese, clerk in the Independent office, who swore to the sending off of offensive publications through the mail by the accused. The witnesses in the case are Wm. Moody, a negro, and C. D. Miles, who mailed the papers, and who had been sent to the house of detention. The two prisoners were taken to the Commissioner's office in a carriage, thence to jail to remain until Monday morning, when the hearing of the case comes off. They manifested their usual boldness and descanted on the way to prison on the outrage of the arrest and confinement over Sunday. They insisted upon suitable apartments at the Ludlow street jail. The statutory penalty for sending obscene literature through the mails is imprisonment for one year and a fine of one hundred dollars.

The Express says that the arrest of Woodhull and Claflin for circulating obscene literature was to be expected, for nothing more obscene in the way of words and atrocious charges ever obtained currency in any community than the attacks of these women upon distinguished and honorable clergymen, and the gross attack upon Rev. Henry Ward Beecher and Theodore Tilton.

About Diamonds.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Mail advices from the Cape of Good Hope to Oct. 5th, say the report of the discovery of precious stones in Arizona had reached the fields and caused some excitement and a depressing effect upon the diamond market.

Gold has been discovered there.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Civil Rights Enforced.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—A restaurant keeper was fined in the police court to day, $100 for refusing to entertain colored persons at his establishment.

A Brother's Revenge.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Thomas Donahoe, who is supposed to have shot Florence Scannel, two years ago, was shot dead to-night by John Scannel, brother of Florence, in a saloon on the corner of Twenty-eighth and Broadway.

WEST INDIES.

The Burned Steamer.

HAVANA, Nov. 1.—Intense excitement has been caused by the receipt of the news of the burning of the steamer Missouri. Several prominent residents of Cuba are among the lost.

MEXICO.

General News.

CITY OF MEXICO, Oct. 25—via HAVANA, Nov. 1.—Trevino has arrived at the Capital and was well received by President Tejada.

Porfirio Diaz has commissioned notable citizens to arrange a peace between himself and Tejada.

Gen. Timorez has been imprisoned because he had not surrendered his arms.

Almendaro, leader of the Citadel in revolt last year, has been arrested.

A Commission to investigate the border depredations went to Matamoras to day.

The Mexican government still delays action on the Mixed Claims Commission difficulties.

Bliss, American Charge d'Affaire during the absence of Minister Nelson, is in poor health.

On the news of the death of ex Secretary Seward, the flag of the American Legation Consulate was kept at half mast for four days. The Mexican press contained a lengthy flattering biography of Mr. Seward.

Mining matters are improving. Several rich mineral veins have been discovered lately.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 3.—Goldsmith Maid and Lucy start for the East to-morrow. Hickok will remain here.

Thousands of people witnessed the balloon ascension of Buislay and his goat to-day. Both landed safely.

The whaling fleet is rapidly coming in. The ships Marengo, Europa, Josephine and three whaling barks are in sight to night. The Europa brings 800 barrels oil. She was 22 days from the Arctic. She is at Saucelito. The Josephine, 22 days from the Arctic, has 1,200 barrels oil and 12,000 pounds of bone. The bark Louisa brings 550 barrels.

The ship John of Gaunt sailed from this port, July 9th, and arrived here to-day, 42 days from Shanghae. On Sept. 29th, John Cooke, native of Bristol, aged 23 years, seaman, died on board from fever.

The steamer Orizaba sailed to-day with freight and passengers for San Diego.

The British ship Lockett, 178 days from London, has arrived.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

SANTA ROSA, Nov. 3.—The writ of habeas corpus before Judge Overton, about the marriage on the high seas, of Mr. Henry Balzar to Miss Lizzie Baston, has been decided in favor of Mr. Balzar, who departed rejoicing, with his young wife, for home.

From the African diamond fields we learn that there had been another great diamond robbery. A mail bag was dropped from a post-cart on its way from the fields to the colony; and though the bag was afterwards found, diamonds valued at from £35,000 to £40,000 were missing. Great excitement was caused by the news at the fields.

Some of the Democrats on Long Tom, and perhaps in other precincts in Lane county, will vote for O'Conor and Adams' Electors; others will not vote at all; and a few will probably vote for Grant. The Republican majority in the county is not likely to be less than 100, and may reach 200.

The Management of the Treasury.

A correspondence which recently took place between Congressman Merriam, of New York, and Gen. Spinner, U. S. Treasurer, at once proves the utter falsity of the accusations of fraud in the management of the Treasury which the Greeleyites have circulated, and shows fully the manner in which that branch of the public service is conducted. Gen. Spinner's letter will be interesting to the reader independently of its bearing upon the contest between Grant and Greeley, by reason of the vast amount of minute information it contains upon a subject in which all are interested, but with which few are familiar. We give all of Mr. Merriam's letter that is material, and the reply of Gen. Spinner in full:

"Perhaps we ought to be content with the righteous verdict of the public, who punish Democratic liars at the polls. Yet I do not like to see my fellow men, who are honest themselves, led by Democratic leaders to a belief in lies invented and scattered broadcast without regard to quality, quantity, length, breadth or depth—wicked, infamous lies. I read to-day and have before me an article in the Lewis county Democrat, headed 'The Treasury Robbed—Satan seems to be let loose in the Treasury of the United States—Controller Clark shows that six hundred millions of dollars have been stolen from the United States since Grant's Administration, &c., &c. In the past year, alone, three millions in coupons have been paid on over issued bonds, which are the same as counterfeits, and ever since Grant was elected there has been these over-issues, until untold millions are salted away by men in the Treasury,' &c., &c. There seems to be but one way to open the eyes of the Democratic papers. They believe anything a Democrat says. Now, my dear General, if I remember rightly, there was an investigating committee ordered by Congress, who went through the books and vaults of the Treasury, last winter examining entries, counting gold, currency and bonds. Such an appointed committee would, of course, have a proportion of Democrats. Did they make a report? If so, have the kindness to send it to me with the names of the men constituting the committee. I rejoice with you that Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Maine and Vermont have told us that we are to have no such liars—for it's an old adage, if a man will lie he will steal—to administer the affairs of this Government."

TREASURY OF THE UNITED STATES,
Washington, Oct. 21, 1872.

MY DEAR SIR: Your letter of the 13th inst. was a long time in reaching me. Really I don't know how to treat the first charge, as stated by you as having been made by the Lewis County Democrat, against the management of the Treasury Department, to wit: That $600,000,000 have been stolen from the United States Treasury since Grant's Administration. Had the fact occurred to the getter up of this monstrous lie that the amount he names would, in gold, make over 1,100 two-horse wagon loads of over a ton each, he would probably have cut down his estimated stealings ninety per cent. As it stands, the story is not within the bounds of any reasonable human credulity. It is simply a monstrous fabrication out of whole cloth. But it is barely possible that the gulping down of an unsavory candidate for President, by certain Democratic politicians, may have enlarged their powers of deglutition to such an extent that they can now swallow any lie, however enormous.

Controller Clark is quoted as having shown that this statement is true. Who is Controller Clark? There is no such man. Hon. Freeman Clark, the Republican member of Congress from the Rochester District, New York, was, long ago, and before the present Administration began, Controller of the Currency. As such officer his business was with the affairs of the national banks and their currency. With the money operations of the Government he had nothing whatever to do. Mr. Clark is a high-minded, honorable man, and I feel sure that he is not responsible for this gross, palpable and infamous falsehood, and would if brought to his notice, at once brand it as such. Messrs. Taylor and Brodhead are the Controllers of the Treasury, and both have held their offices for many years. "Controller Clark" is a myth. This wholesale charge is made without any specification, and, as a negative cannot well be proved, I dismiss it with an emphatic denial of it, in whole or in part.

The next charge is, that "in the past year alone three millions in coupons have been paid on over issued bonds, which are, the same as counterfeits, and ever since Grant was elected, there have been these over-issues, until untold millions are salted away by men in the Treasury." This charge would perhaps be fairly within the bounds of Democratic credulity. But unluckily for the liar, he has made a distinct specification that can be sufficiently disproved to satisfy any unbiased fair-minded man. The public debt has not been increased one cent since Gen. Grant assumed the administration of the Government. Hundreds of millions of Government bonds have been paid for and canceled, but not one single bond has ever been added, except in exchange for another for a like amount. The bonds could, therefore, not have been increased during his term of office. An accurate record of all bonds is made in the office of the Register of the Treasury. On the books of this officer a separate page is assigned for every individual coupon bond that has ever been issued since the Republican party came into power. All coupons are either paid by the Treasurer or by one of the Assistant Treasurers or designated Depositaries of the United States. In all cases, on payment thereon, each coupon is immediately canceled by having a hole punched through it. If paid elsewhere they are forwarded to this office. Here they are all separately examined to test their genuineness, and are carefully compared with the schedules that accompanied the remittances. They are then again canceled, and forwarded with the schedules to the First Auditor, who in turn re-examines all the coupons, and again cancels them. If that officer finds them, and everything connected with them, all correct, he audits and states an account in my favor, and forwards it with the coupons and schedules to the First Controller of the Treasury, in whose office they are again re-examined and again canceled, and if found to be correct in every particular, the last named officer then, and not till then, allows me a credit for the amount. Every punch used for cancellation in the four offices named is peculiar in shape, differing in one office from all the others, so that there can be no mistake about their having gone through all the various offices named. From the Controller of the Treasury, the coupons go to the Register of the Treasury, with a statement of the particular loan to which they belong, the number and denomination, and the aggregate amount of each remittance. In the last named office each individual coupon is entered to the space prepared for it on the page of the book representing the bond to which it belongs, as first above described, so that the first coupon that should come in of a counterfeit, or an over issued bond, as there would be no place for its entry upon the book, would instantly detect fraud. Not one such has ever yet reached the office of the Register, and consequently the proof seems clear that not a single coupon save such as was legitimately issued, and of recorded bonds, for which the money was received into the Treasury, has ever been paid by the Government.

These libelers of the officers of the Treasury affect to have forgotten that the Treasury was thoroughly overhauled last winter, and examination made of its books, accounts and cash on hand, by a committee of experts, of which George W. Riggs, Esq., the eminent banker and honest Democrat, was Chairman, who reported everything as stated and called for by the books and vouchers as being correct and right. At the same time, and continuing afterward to the close of the session, a committee of the House of Representatives, of which Hon. J. Lynch was Chairman, and Messrs. Cypher, Hay, Barnum and Kendall were members, made a like examination. All these were honest and competent men and two of them Democrats. Although this last committee did not complete their investigations for the want of time, the members were satisfied that everything was right so far as they went.

Since the receipt of your letter I have made such investigation, in regard to the specific charges, as satisfied me that not a single coupon has ever been paid for, save such as were legitimately issued with bonds for which the Government received the money value. But it seems useless to disprove these baseless falsehoods, and I therefore had great doubts whether it was worth the while to answer or even to notice them in any way. The moment one lie in regard to the conduct of the President, or the officers acting under him, is disproved and disposed of, another, if possible more monstrous, is immediately coined and put in circulation. We can afford to be patient. A few days more, and the people will decide by their votes the issue that these calumniators have made with the administration of public affairs. Very respectfully yours,

F. E. SPINNER,
Treasurer of the United States.

To Hon. E. Clinton L. Merriman, M. C., Locust Grove, Lewiston, N. Y.

Letter from Gen. Longstreet.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 15, 1872.

Hon. Hugh J. Campbell, President State Central Committee, Liberal Republicans:

Sir—It is my judgment that the purposes of the National Conventions held at Cincinnati and Baltimore can not be accomplished as anticipated by the projectors of the views and objects there inaugurated. Partly because of the impossibility of observing entire faith in political compacts; but more particularly because of the natural tendency of parties and party members to seek their old lines and landmarks.

When I was inclined to embark in this move I was under the impression that I was at liberty to do so as a Republican; but we have been drawn on, step by step, until we find ourselves, not only out of the Republican party, but about to enter the Democratic ranks, as recruits. The last is a step that I cannot take. I may, by lending countenance to the Liberal move, have compromised myself to such extent as to forfeit the privilege of voting, but I do not think that I have gone so far as to give the Democratic party a just claim to my undivided vote and political assistance.

I am not a Democrat, nor have I been a member of the party. On the contrary, I have been a Republican and have constantly so announced myself. Now, the events of the last six months clearly indicate to my mind, that there is more liberality in the Republican party than has been developed by the move that has been called the Liberal move. I can not, therefore, find reason, in logic or in sentiment for passing the line between the Democratic party and myself. As previously stated, I may be so compromised as to have forfeited my privilege of voting the entire Republican ticket, but I must not go so far as to forbid my return to the party when the present canvass is closed. I must ask you, therefore, to withdraw my name from your committee, begging at the same time to renew my assurances of kind personal regard for our former colleagues. I remain sir, very respectfully, your most obedient servant,

JAMES LONGSTREET.

The Next Vice President.

A correspondent of the New Orleans National Republican thus speaks of Hon. Henry Wilson:

In Washington I had the pleasure of meeting with Mr. Henry Wilson, the candidate for the Vice Presidency. He is easy of approach and affable in his manners and address. He is a man of large and liberal views, and his experience in public affairs renders his conversation exceedingly instructive. His early history, his struggles in elevating himself from the mere laborer, from poverty and privation, to the present exalted station he now holds before the American people, give to the man a universal interest. Telling as he has with the masses, he knows their wants and necessities; acquiring by indomitable will a position among the ablest and best; he has not hesitated to cope with the strongest in debate, and to compel them to acknowledge in him an equal. No one can converse half an hour with Mr. Wilson, as I did, without discovering in him characteristics far above the ordinary role of men, or without feeling a consciousness that he possesses traits that fit him for the position he will so soon be called upon to fill. Identifying himself as he has with the principles of Republicanism, the maintenance of the Union, the equality of men without distinction of color, of race, before the law, the rights of labor and of the laboring classes, Henry Wilson, it strikes me, is no bad type of the present ruling ideas of the American people.

The Journal estimates that seventeen thousand gallons of rain water poured through the canvass in seventeen minutes on the people who attended John Wilson's Circus at Eugene last week. The people of course didn't complain of the performance being dry.

A paper at Eugene says: "Judge Shattuck was invited and expected to be present to take part in the discussion with Mr. Hare at the Court House last Tuesday evening, but he did not appear. He is disgusted with his Democratic associates and they are disgusted with him. They won't come out to hear him, and hence he very wisely concludes he won't attempt to speak to them. He came here some weeks ago and spoke to empty walls."

MONDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 4, 1872.

The Fusion of Incompatibles.

The Presidential election to-morrow will prove the weakness of the alliance between the Democrats and Liberals. We think it will not fail to prove that a Democratic candidate, regularly nominated by a Democratic Convention, upon a Democratic platform, would be stronger before the people, than the candidate now before them as the representative of two incompatible parties. We take this view of the case from the fact that throughout the country are to be found Democrats who openly declare they will not support Mr. Greeley, and that they prefer the election of Grant before that of the Cincinnati-Baltimore candidate. Such expressions are common, and they do not come alone from persons who possess little influence in the party. Many persons of high standing in the Democratic party have thus declared themselves. They are rational men, and Democrats from principle, and they cannot understand the pretended necessity of abandoning their principles in order to secure the votes of the people, nor the honesty of doing so, even to avoid defeat.

It is a noticeable fact that in the State nominations, the Democratic element of the alliance has generally insisted upon the lion's share of the offices. This is probably regarded as no more than a just compensation for their being entirely omitted in making up the Presidential ticket. At all events, it is so, and it is worthy of remark that the highest vote against the Republican candidate has generally been polled for the Democratic candidates of the opposition. In Indiana the Fusion candidate for Governor was selected from the ranks of the Democracy and he was elected while the rest of the offices were taken by the Republicans, with majorities ranging from twelve hundred to eighteen hundred. In Pennsylvania the candidate for Governor was a Democrat; and although he was defeated by a vast majority, he ran nearly four thousand votes ahead of the Fusion ticket for Congressmen at large.

The Democracy and the Liberals can never unite. The elections would prove this if it needed proof; but it needs none beyond a mere comparison of the views and objects of the two parties. Greeley was a pretty fair exponent of the class of Republicans who went off after him, or with him, in the Liberal movement. His most unsparing denunciations of the Democracy in former times but echoed the sentiments of this class of the Republicans. With scarcely an exception, they are the radicals of the Radicals, and have no more in common with the Bourbon Democracy than the latter have with the party of progress and reform. It will not be twelve months after the defeat of to-morrow, till the Democracy will be either definitely adjourned without day, or engaged in the attempt to perfect and consolidate its organization upon old and recognized Democratic principles. The party cannot be brought to vote for an apostate Republican for President, nor can it be forced to abandon its organization by any such indirect method as that devised by the Baltimore Convention. Overwhelmingly defeated now, it may never make another struggle; but if it should still strive for ascendency, it will be as a straight-out Democratic organization. Greeley and his band can never find a home in the household of the Democracy, and the Republicans know better than to trust them again.

In Carroll, Louisiana, on the 6th ult., the Greeleyites, enraged because the local paper of the place, the Straight-out Republican, persisted in showing up the record of Mr. Greeley, raised a mob and made a raid upon the office of the paper, destroying its press and scattering its type through the streets. Such are the means by which the Greeley party are endeavoring to carry the Southern States for their "reform" candidate. A few days ago we noticed their attempt to assassinate a Republican at a political meeting in Arkansas for cheering for Grant and the Republican party. And now follow the destruction of a Republican newspaper in Louisiana, and the hoisting of a rebel flag in Missouri by Greeley mobs. This is the party of reform, who believe in free and untrammeled speech, who wish to forget the bitter past, "shake hands across the bloody chasm," and become peaceful and peaceable citizens. They certainly start out well.

Hon. Archibald Mitchell, Chairman of the Democratic State Convention of Louisiana, publishes a card giving his opinion on the subject matter of the so-called fusion, in which he pertinently states that the fusion aforesaid is a nullity, and that all Democrats and others interested are absolved from the performance of such duties of fealty as are alone due to proper party organizations, but which the heterogeneous and mixed character of the present ticket absolutely excludes even the consideration of. In saying this, too, Mr. Mitchell takes occasion to state that he finds much gratification in so expressing himself—a gratification which will be largely shared in by all who, like himself, hold in abhorrence the base designs of the corrupt tricksters who force themselves into political prominence to the detriment of honest, capable men, and at the sacrifice of the people's peace and well-being.

The Bulletin of yesterday in answer to a correspondent who inquires as to the mode and time of holding the Presidential election, falls into an error as to the time. It says the act of 1845 requiring the election to be held in all the States "on the Tuesday next following the first Monday of November," is still the law, and that "now every State in the Union, without exception, votes for Presidential Electors on the day fixed by the act of 1845." This is a mistake. Louisiana is made an exception, for this year's election, by an act of Congress of June 1, 1872, and will hold her Presidential election to-day instead of to-morrow, and by an act of May 23, 1872, the election beginning on next Tuesday may continue from day to day in any State wherein the State laws provide for such continuation, as is the case in Texas.

The Bulletin whimpered and sniveled over the freight quetion yesterday; it may therefore be expected to rave to-day. Its whining days and its ranting days alternate. Meanwhile the people will continue to reason upon the facts we have been collecting from the commercial reports of the different sections of the country, and publishing from day to day, and will form their own conclusions.

A correspondent writing from Eugene, says C. A. Ball, Esq., addressed the largest audience Saturday evening last, that has assembled at that place during the campaign. His speech, which is said to have been a very able effort, was received with frequent and hearty applause.

Honest Horace.

The Democracy have dubbed Horace Greeley with the sobriquet "Honest Horace." We suppose they judge him by his oft repeated expressions of horror and indignation at the corruptions of the Democratic party. If we had no evidence touching the question of his honestoy other than that afforded by those expressions, we should not be at all disposed to controvert his right to this complimentary nick-name. And we are not sure that even the additional and peculiar circumstance of his capricious moods always leading him to change his base just at the time, and just in the way, that appears most likely to forward his own projects, would be regarded as a sufficient ground for suspecting him to be anything but an honest person—honest, but afflicted at times with a most methodical madness. But in the light of certain facts which have lately been made public in regard to his conduct some years ago, when he was endeavoring to secure a contract for a friend of his to do the binding for the Congressional House of Representatives, the unwelcome conviction is forced upon us that Mr. Greeley is a "man of like passions" as other people—only a little more so, perhaps. There is a manifest fitness in the association of "Honest Horace" with those other honest gentlemen who, a short time ago, had the government of the city of New York, and whom the people of these United States have been in the habit of scandalizing under the title of the "Tammany Thieves." The subjoined correspondence is pertinent in this connection:

> LOCKPORT, N. Y., Oct. 17, 1872.
> John I. Platt, Esq., Editor Poughkeepsie Eagle: During your visit to this city several weeks ago, we met by invitation at the residence of a mutual friend. In the course of the miscellaneous conversation of that social interview, the subject of politics was discussed, and I related a circumstance in my Congressional service, which, as I told you, largely influenced my opinion of the personal character of one of the Presidential candidates. The circumstance was that while the question of a disposal of the binding of the House was pending before the Printing Committee of which I was a member, Horace Greeley called upon me at my room and proposed that the contract should be given to Cornelius Wendell, who, he distinctly said, would pay $12,000 for it, and that by way of impressing me favorably with the offer, he added, that the money could or would be useful for election purposes. This statement you soon after published in the Eagle from recollection, with errors you have corrected in a subsequent issue of your paper. The truthfulness of my statement is denied in a recent number of the New York Tribune, as authorized by Mr. Greeley himself. The publications of my conversational statement was made without my knowledge, expectation or consent. The literal and exact truth of it, however, I am responsible for, and I hereby distinctly reiterate it in the face of the coarse and characteristic denial which has been interposed in behalf of the Presidential candidate. I do not alter or abate one jot or title of it, either to screen him or injure him. He may have forgotten the circumstance, but I have not, for it was well calculated to impress itself indelibly upon my mind, and there are numbers of my Congressional associates who will recollect my relation of the incident immediately after its occurrence, and who will also remember that I indignantly denounced the act of Mr. Greeley then, as I denounce it now.
>
> You are authorized to publish this communication.
>
> T. T. FLAGLER.

The Eagle also published the following letter from Hon. Edwin B. Morgan:

> Editor of the Poughkeepsie Eagle: I have just received your note of the 15th inst., requesting me to state my recollections in relation to a charge made by Mr. Thomas T. Flagler, of Lockport, against Mr. Horace Greeley. In the early part of the session of the Thirty fourth Congress, Mr. Flagler informed Gov. Washburne, of Maine, myself, and other members of Congress from this State, that Mr. Greeley had just left his room at Willard's Hotel, where he had made to him an insulting proposition. That he, Greeley, offered Flagler (who was a member of the Printing Committee) $12,000 if he would cause the binding contract to be awarded to Cornelius Wendell. An animated indignant discussion was had upon the occasion, and each gentleman present agreed with Mr. Flagler that the proposition was a great insult. I observe the Tribune denies the statement. There is no gentleman in the State who sustains a more enviable character for intelligence, veracity and great moral worth than Thomas T. Flagler, and what motive he then could have had to mislead his fellow-members, when we were all the friends of Mr. Greeley, I cannot conceive. Very respectfully,
> EDWIN B. MORGAN.

The New York Times credits the St. Louis Globe with the following account of an affair in Palmyra, Missouri, which illustrates the civilizing effects of Greeleyism upon the people of that State:

> A Greeleyite meeting had been advertised to come off, and in order to create the necessary enthusiasm a rebel flag was hung out from the "Liberal" headquarters. This naturally raised indignation among the loyal citizens, who forced it to be taken down, when afterward the American flag was thrown to the breeze from the Republican headquarters, with the names of Grant and Wilson attached. A rebel mob congregated and demanded the hauling of it down. The Republicans refused, and proposed to stand by the flag. The City Council was called together and decided that it be taken down. Some timid citizens joined with them, as they said, to prevent a riot. The consequence was our great national colors were hauled down in obedience to the demands of the rebel supporters of Horace Greeley.

The Committee of Seventy and the Republicans have agreed to run Havemeyer for Mayor of New York, and claim that his election is almost certain. The Times says the only danger of the failure of the Republicans to carry the city and secure the election of General Dix for Governor, lies in the excessive confidence of success, which may cause them to neglect the necessary effort. Every day the prospect of the Republicans in that State grows brighter. It is the only Northern State in which the ground appears to be very hotly contested, and the Republicans feel great confidence in the result.

The Vancouver paper sneers at the Republican candidate for Auditor on account of his youth and beardless chin. It dare not question his high qualifications for the office. His character is unassailable, and his connection with the Receiver's office for eight years has given him all the experience needed. Democrats, over there, have, it would seem, come to the conclusion that a man's qualifications for office are to be determined by the amount of beard he wears and amount of rum he drinks, over and above a quart per day.

Do not forget the meeting at the Court House this evening. The list of speakers announced insures a capital time for all who attend. It is the last meeting of the campaign and ought to be the best. News from every section of the State indicates that the majority of last June can be doubled as well as not, if Republicans will but labor to secure that result.

THE ELECTION IN WASHINGTON TERRITORY.—All parties seem to agree that Hon. S. Garfielde will be re-elected to Congress from Washington Territory. His defeat at this time would be a calamity which it would take years to repair.

The Bee, of Seneca county, New York, which has had the names of Greeley and Brown at its mast-head from the first until last week, repudiates the fusionists now and comes out for Grant and Wilson.

The Standard, an influential Democratic journal published at Andersonville, Indiana, has come out for Grant. Until recently it was an ardent supporter of Greeley for the Presidency.

Washington Territory Politics.

The Olympia Courier, excellent authority on the subject, predicts Mr. Garfielde's re-election by a largely increased majority. We extract the following from a recent issue:

> "The race for Congress in this Territory, between Garfielde and McFadden, is similar in every respect to the race between Grant and Greeley. Greeley was taken up by the Democrats with the rallying cry of "anything to beat Grant;" and McFadden was indorsed by the soreheads with the cry of "anything to beat Garfielde." On the side of the soreheads the campaign has been one of malice and misrepresentation of Mr. Garfielde, while the latter gentleman has contented himself during the canvass with a simple statement of facts in regard to his political record, refuting the slanders of his enemies, and proving to the satisfaction of all intelligent voters that he has fulfilled every promise made to them four years ago. Mr. Garfielde's speeches have been entirely free from personal abuse or mention of the name of his political opponent, while the latter having no just claims on the people for their suffrages, has turned his whole attention to blackening the fair name of the Republican candidate. That the people do not endorse McFadden's mode of conducting the canvass is evinced at every point where he has spoken, and clearly perceive that the party of which McFadden is the representative have utterly failed to prove any of the sweeping charges made against our present delegate in Congress.
>
>
> Among the many false statements made by Judge McFadden in his speech in this city, one was, that the Indian vote cast at the last election at Neah Bay, had been filed in the office of the Secretary of the Territory and counted for Mr. Garfielde. This is absolutely false. It was never counted by the Secretary, having been thrown out by the Auditor of Clallam county. Any one can satisfy himself that this statement is true, and that the statement of Judge McFadden is not, by examining the return now on file in the Secretary's office.
>
> What reliance can be placed on the words of Judge McFadden after we have shown so many cases where he was either entirely mistaken or was guilty of misrepresenting the facts?
>
> The Democracy charge that Indians have been induced to vote the Republican ticket for a sack of flour. We are opposed to all such extravagance, and hope Republicans will economize this year and not pay a sack of flour for an Indian vote. You can buy two Democratic votes for a sack of flour or a gallon of whisky at the present market rates.

A Little Tammany.

The Grand Jury of the District Court, holding terms at Vancouver, have made a report which points to the existence of a small-sized Tammany in Clarke county. As the Democrats have been boasting extensively about the immaculate purity of their candidates for office, we wonder how they will attempt to excuse the conduct of their candidate for Sheriff. Here is what a grand jury, two-thirds of which were Democrats, say of his acts as Deputy-Sheriff:

> In examining the bills of Deputy-Sheriff A. Coffey, we find, that in several instances the bills were not certified to and were overcharged in mileage. We call attention to the following bills as a sample: We find a bill of costs in Justice Smith's Court, the same approved and allowed on the 8th of November, 1871. In this bill there is an item amounting to $5 20. The same item was included in a bill amounting to $80 10, the same approved and allowed Nov. 7, 1871, showing said item to have been paid twice. We find that Deputy-Sheriff Coffey has in many instances charged constructive mileage contrary to law. For instance: Deputy-Sheriff Coffey's bill, filed May 9, 1872, $6 00, without any specifications; Deputy-Sheriff Coffey's bill, filed May 9, 1872, amounting to $29 35, overcharge for mileage.

Thomas J. Byrne, a Democrat of Westchester county, New York, of large influence, has come out for General Dix and for Grant. He says:

> How, sir, let me ask, can any man who has learned Democracy from either Jefferson, Madison or Monroe, support Greeley and Kernan, opposed, both of them, to the perpetuity of the institutions founded by the fathers.

News Inks
5, 50 AND 100 LB. KEGS FOR SALE
H. L. PITTOCK, S. E. cor. Front and Stark Sts.

The Daily Oregonian.

CITY.

JUSTICE IS JUSTICE.—In the Herald of yesterday morning appeared an editorial under the caption of "Honorable," from which we extract the following: "The passenger list of the steamer Oriflamme, which sailed hence for San Francisco last Friday evening, was denied to the Herald, at Holladay's office, from spite at the paper. The reporter of the OREGONIAN was told that he could not have the list except upon the condition that he would not furnish it to the Herald, but Mr Baltimore, the reporter of the OREGONIAN, declined to accept the list upon such terms." This statement of the case is both unfair and incorrect. It has long been the custom with those employed in the Steamship Company's office to furnish the OREGONIAN with a list of the outgoing passengers. Within the last few weeks, it not being convenient for them to provide this office with such list, the reporter has on two occasions gone to the company's office and copied the names for himself. On three occasions the passenger lists have been furnished the Herald by the OREGONIAN, at the request of the former paper, as a matter of journalistic courtesy. Two of such lists were copied by our reporter, and one was furnished this office by the company. The reporter of the OREGONIAN was informed some days ago that the officers of the steamship company were displeased at the conduct of the OREGONIAN reporter in allowing the Herald to have the passenger list at all. The reporter remarked to the person so informing him, that he did not think any objections would be made about such a trivial matter, but if the company were unwilling to furnish him a list through fear that it might be passed over to the Herald, they could decline, and the OREGONIAN reporter copy the list for himself. Nothing further was said. When the Oriflamme sailed last Friday, our reporter neglected to repair to the office until after 4 o'clock, at which hour the office was closed. No list was furnished this office. Whether it was intentionally omitted, or accidentally overlooked, we cannot say. But the assertion of the Herald that the reporter of this paper was told that he could not have the list except upon the condition that he would not furnish it to the Herald, is not correct. No demand was made for the passenger list at the Company's office, nor have any such conditions as those specified, ever been imposed on the OREGONIAN reporter. We do not desire to be placed in a false position nor to be made the means of placing others in a false position, and we have, therefore, made this statement to the end that no injustice may be done to any of the parties concerned.

CLOSE OF THE CAMPAIGN.—The closing meeting of the Presidential campaign will be held by the Republicans of this city at the Court House this evening. A constant and spirited fire has been kept up during the past week on the outposts of the enemy, and now it is proposed to make a grand final charge directly on the stronghold of the Liberals, and put their wavering hosts to inglorious flight. Remember that this will be the last opportunity, and that to-morrow will be the election. We hope no trivial excuses, such as inclemency of the weather, or prior engagements, will keep any Republican away from the meeting. Let the motto of "Eternal vigilance is the price of Liberty," be kept steadfastly in view by every man who expects to cast a vote to-morrow for Grant and Wilson. Show your faith by your works, and crowd to repletion the capacious Court room to-night. The East Portland Band will be in attendance. The meeting will be addressed by the following Speakers: Mrs. A. J. Duniway, Hon. A. C. Gibbs, Hon. H. W. Scott, Geo. P. Reilly, Esq., Hon. J. F. Caples, Hon. Geo H Durham, Hon. M. F. Mulkey, John Donovan, Esq., George Venable Smith, and others. Speaking will commence at 7 30 o'clock P.M.

NEW TUG.—A correspondent states in a cotemporary that a new steamer is being built at Westport to serve as a tug boat on the Columbia and Wallamet rivers. The dimensions are as follows: 80 feet over all, 28 feet 6 inches beam, and to draw five feet of water, will be propelled by twin screws and will be fitted up with powerful machinery. She is of stout build, and men of experience testify that she is one of the finest models that has ever been seen on the Columbia river. She is now in full frame, and the workman like manner in which she is being put up, reflects great credit on Mr. W. J. Stephens, her builder. We are not posted as to the party for whom this tug boat is intended. The supposition is that Mr. Stephens is building her for speculation. He has erected a fine shed in order that the construction of the vessel may be pushed forward during winter. It is expected that she will be ready to take the water by the 1st of Fabruary.

APPEARANCE ENHANCED.—Since the debris has been cleared from Fourth street the appearance of the thoroughfare has been enhanced at least fifty per cent. That street now presents an appearance which, for neatness and public convenience, far surpasses any street in the city. The work is being pushed with unabated ardor toward College street, and that portion of Fourth street from G southward to College, the limit of the present contract, will be in a condition for public travel by the latter part of the present month.

OFF THE MUD.—At last accounts from down the river, the steamship Oriflamme was still on the mud at the mouth of the Wallamet. The steamer E N. Cooke went down Saturday evening to lighter the steamer, and lend assistance in pulling her off. By availing of the flow of the tide, and with a hundred tons or more of freight transferred to the Cooke, she will no doubt be extricated from the unpleasant predicament soon, if she is not already on the way to San Francisco.

COMING UP.—The Wallamet having reached its low water mark has commenced to gather again its aqueous forces and swell its volume. The recent fall rains in the mountains and along the valleys have begun to yield their accumulations through the various tributaries, and to cause an increase in the size of the river. The rise of the river will be as constant and rapid as has been its decline during the fall months, now that the rainy season is upon the land of Webfoot.

ARM FRACTURED.—We are informed that a man while riding out from the city yesterday, met with a severe accident. The horse on which he was seated, shied to one side by a pheasant flying up from the road side. The gentleman not being a practiced equestrian, was thrown heavily to the earth, slightly fracturing his left arm. The horse ran away, but was caught by ah se, and returned to the disabled rider, who came to the city.

THE CIRCUIT COURT.—One week from this morning the November term of the Circuit Court for Multnomah county will commence, His Honor Judge Upton presiding. There will be a full criminal, law and equity docket to be disposed of the coming term. In accordance with the law, no cases can be entered on the court docket for trial since last Saturday, that being the tenth day from the date of the convening of the term.

CLOTHES THIEVES.—A few nights ago some thieves visited the yard of a gentleman residing in East Portland and stole a considerable quantity of clothing. It was thought at first that the theft had been committed by Chinamen, but an examination of the tracks left in the yielding earth proved the suspicion to be without foundation. No clue.

FOR SCOWS.—About 10,000 feet of lumber went up this morning on the steamer Onconta, bound for the Upper Columbia. This lumber will be used in the construction of several scows, necessary to be employed in the removal of obstructions from the channel by Mr. Montgomery, who has the contract under the superintendence of Major Robert.

PROBABLY THE PATHFINDER.—We are informed that a brigantine has been reported off the bar, which, it is believed, is the brig Pathfinder, under command of Captain N L Rogers. The Pathfinder sailed from this port for Honolulu about six weeks ago. She made the outward voyage in 12 days, and has no doubt made good time homeward.

READY TO COLLECT.—According to law the time in which to collect taxes is set as being thirty days from the day on which they are placed in the Collector's hands. The Directors of School District No. 1 give notice that they will receive the taxes due for schools. The time will expire on the 30th day of November, 1872.

WILL ADJOURN.—The District Court, Judge Greene presiding, which has been in session at Vancouver during the past week, will adjourn to-morrow, the docket having been cleared.

EXPECTED.—The little schooner Alice Hooke, is reported in the river with a full assorted cargo. She can be expected at any time.

COME TO ANCHOR.—The bark Forward was towed down the river yesterday by the tug Ben Holladay. The vessel is drawing a little over sixteen feet, and the tide being out, it was thought to be unsafe to proceed further at the present stage of water. The Forward then came to anchor a short distance above Swan Island.

THE NEW SCHOOL HOUSE.—The new school house, just west of the Custom House, is rapidly approaching completion. The plastering and painting of the interior portions have been nearly finished, and the building will be ready for the reception of pupils in a few weeks.

IN THE RIVER.—The ship Grossmeier, from Shanghai, in ballast, arrived off the bar a few days ago. She is now in the river in tow of the Merrimac, and has probably arrived at this port now. Both the vessels Grossmeier and Red Deer will load with wheat for Liverpool.

NOVEMBER TERM.—The regular November term of the U. S District Court will convene this morning. A grand jury has been summoned and will proceed at once to the organization of the Court to investigate such charges as may be brought before them.

GOOD BEGINNING.—A good commencement makes a bad ending, it is said. If that is true, the police record will make an unfavorable showing by the close of the present month. Since the first of November there have been only ten arrests made.

AT THE BONEYARD.—The steamer Dixie Thompson was taken to the boneyard Saturday evening. She will be repainted before taking the line, and in the meantime the Josie McNear will take her place on the Astoria route.

FRAME RAISED.—The frame of the new livery stable, of Mr. T. Fitch, on L street, East Portland, has been raised, and a portion of the sides enclosed, the rafters are nearly all raised, and the roof will shortly be put on.

CONTRACT COMPLETED.—The steamer California soon due here, will bring the last cargo of stone to be used in the construction of the new Custom House. The contract calls for only twenty five more stones.

CONVALESCING.—Mr. W. A. Holbrook, late Engrossing Clerk for the Senate, who has been lying very ill for the last month, is, we are gratified to note, rapidly convalescing.

DISCONTINUED.—The open air meetings under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, have been discontinued for the present in consequence of the inclemency of the weather.

RAILROAD IRON.—The railroad iron which was brought from Liverpool on the ship Siam, is lying at Astoria. This iron will soon be re shipped to parties in San Francisco by sailing vessels.

WILL BE DUE.—The steamer John L. Stephens which sailed from San Francisco for this port last Saturday morning, will be due here to-morrow evening.

MEETING OF DIRECTORS.—There will be a meeting of the Directors of the Portland Bridge Company at the Company's office this evening, at six o'clock.

COUNTY COURT.—The County Court will convene at the Court House this forenoon at 10 o'clock, for the transaction of county business.

The Secretaries of the various companies were ordered to report the ages of the candidates proposed, and no members were to be proposed under 21 years of age.

THE TRIAL.

Mr Whalley moved that the charges read at the last meeting be dismissed, on the grounds that there was no charge stated in them.

On motion of Mr. Hallock the motion was laid on the table.

The first charge against the entire company was read. The charge was dismissed.

The second charge was then read.

Mr. Ben. Norden was appointed counsel on behalf of the prosecution, and Mr. J. W. Whalley on the part of the defense.

A demurrer was entered, which was overruled. The Board then adjourned until this evening at 7·30 o'clock.

AMUSEMENTS.

The sterling Irish drama of "Peep o' Day," will be re produced at Oro Fino Theater this evening.

Miss Edith O'Gorman, the "Escaped Nun," will deliver a lecture at the Masonic Hall next Thursday evening.

A vocal and instrumental concert, for the benefit of the East Portland M. E. Church, will be given at the Odd Fellow's Hall, in that place next Wednesday evening, 6th, inst. An attractive programme will be offered. Arrangements have been made with the stark Street ferryboat by which those who may wish to attend from this side of the river, can cross to and fro free of charge.

We understand that some evening the present week, there will be placed on the boards of the Oro Fino theater of this city, an original drama entitled "Fay," from the pen of one of Portland's fair daughters. We trust that the fair authoress will meet with a gratifying reception for aside from its claim of being purely Oregonian we are assured that the piece possesses great intrinsic merit, and will commend itself to the favorable consideration of our theater-going citizens. Manager Waldron will do his very best; and the cast of characters is such as will insure a success. If "Fay" is what we are led to believe it to be, we hope to see such a generous welcome accorded to it as will induce the gifted authoress to make still further efforts to amuse and interest our pleasure seeking community.

PERSONAL.

We learn that S. A. Clarke, Esq., Chief Clerk of the late House of Representatives, and well known as a newspaper man in Oregon, expects to start on a visit to the East in a few days, to spend the winter in Boston and Washington, where he contemplates engaging in literary pursuits.

BOTH LOADED.—The ship Siam and bark Loch Dee are both loaded and lying at Astoria. These vessels will proceed to sea at the earliest opportunity.

SECRET DISCOVERED.—The secret of dressing is not so much in expensive clothing as in the perfect fit of the garments. This fact is thoroughly understood by Fishel & Roberts, corner of First and Washington streets; hence their popularity among gentlemen. Their stock is complete in every department. If you would keep warm during the coming winter, delay not in selecting suitable winter goods. You will certainly experience no trouble in selecting from the new goods recently received at this house. Those who have once dealt with them rarely ever change for another. Fair dealing and courteous manners make business.

EPICUREANS will find at Stalls Nos. 10 and 11, Central Market, a very choice lot of game, fish and poultry. Quinn, who continues to dispense these luxuries at the Union Market, Washington street, presides over these Stalls, and that is all that need be said to induce every one to call.

IF you have not already ordered a fall or winter suit, you should delay no longer. The work turned out by J. O'Neil & Co., 95 First street, is considered by gentlemen of taste as A No 1. The materials used are of the very best quality. To make room for new goods, some important improvements have been made. Recollect that they keep the best furnishing goods, make fitting suits, and offer goods at prices that meet with favor among all classes.

The old saying is, "What everybody says must be true," and everyone says that Beck & Waldman have the largest and best selected stock of the latest styles and patterns in gentlemen's Clothing and Furnishing Goods in the city of Portland. They have the largest variety of Boy's, Youth's, and Children's Suits, all which will be sold according to the times. Please call and satisfy yourself that we will not be undersold by anyone.
BECK & WALDMAN,
Corner Front and Washington streets.

SAVE YOUR DOCTOR'S BILLS.—When Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry will cure coughs, colds, bleeding at the lungs, and arrest the fell destroyer, Consumption, it does more than most physicians can do. The use of a single bottle will satisfy the incredulous that they need look no further for the required aid.

Why has SOZODONT become the staple Dentrifice of America? Simply because it is impossible to use it, even for a week, without perceiving its hygienic effect upon the teeth, the gums and the breath. 20

To protect the understanding of humanity, nothing there is like leather fastened together by CABLE SCREW WIRE. Boots and Shoes made in this way never rip, or leak, or come apart.

Cure it at once. Do not treat it lightly. A cough may prove dangerous. A cold may lead you, by sure degrees, to hopeless consumption. In WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY a cure for coughs, colds, bronchitis and whooping cough is offered. It is well known and is easily tried. All druggists keep it.

HIESKELL'S TETTER OINTMENT

GEO. P. NEWELL,
Teacher of the Pianoforte, Organ, Harmony and Vocal Culture.
Harmony is the Life, Soul and Beauty of Music. It is a most pleasing and interesting study, and it is a necessary and important study to all who wish to render a composition according to the design of the author. It is a matter of surprise to all my advanced pupils why their former teachers did not teach them Harmony.
All communications left at Gray's, or Gill & Steel's Music Stores will be promptly attended to. au8dtf

Seasonable Suggestions
The heavy mists and cold night dews which characterize the present season are very trying to delicate organizations, and in low lying and swampy localities they produce an enormous crop of intermittent fevers of various types and degrees of intensity. At this very time there are probably half a million of people in the United States suffering from periodical fevers by miasmatic fogs and exhalations. What makes the prevalence of this evil the more deplorable is the fact that it might in all cases be easily prevented. Malaria and damp produce little or no effect upon the system prefortified by a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Every fall and spring hundreds of letters are received from persons residing in ague and fever districts, who state that while their neighbors are incapacitated for labor by that debilitating disease, they have been happily exempted from attack by the regular use of the great vegetable antidote to miasma. As a chologogue or specific for intermittent and remittent fevers the Bitters may be justly accounted infallible. They eradicate the complaints in their most obstinate forms, but the wiser course is to forestall attack by taking the preparation as a preventive. The amount of productive labor withdrawn from active service during several months in the year by malarious maladies is immense, and the pecuniary losses to individuals, families and the nation from this cause is incalculable. Bear in mind that by toning and regulating the system with Hostetter's Bitters before the calamity comes, it may always be escaped; and let it also be remembered that indigestion, general debility, biliousness, constipation, nervous complaints, and indeed almost all the disturbances and derangements of the physical system are controlable by this genial restorative.

PLANTATION BITTERS!
S. T.--1860--X.
The wonderful vegetable restorative is the sheet-anchor of the feeble and debilitated. As a tonic and cordial for the aged and languid it has no equal among stomachics. As a remedy for the nervous weakness to which women are especially subject, it is superseding every other stimulant. In all climates, tropical, temperate or frigid, it acts as a specific in every species of disorder which undermines the bodily strength and breaks down the animal spirits.

LYON'S KATHAIRON,
For Preserving and Beautifying the Human Hair. To Prevent its Falling Out and Turning Grey.
A well-preserved Head of Hair, in a person of middle age, at once bespeaks refinement, elegance, health and beauty. It may truly be called Woman's Crowning Glory, while men are not insensible to its advantages and charms. Few things are more disgusting than thin, frizzly, harsh, untamed Hair, with head and coat covered with Dandruff. Visit a barber and you feel and look like a new man. This is what LYON'S KATHAIRON will do all the time. The charm which lies in well placed Hair, Glossy Curls, Luxuriant Tresses, and a Clean Head, is noticeable and irresistible.

The Greeley Crow

Once upon a rainy morning, I was half asleep and adorning,
All my outward man a adorning, dreaming to get up once more
Through the morning grim and yellow suddenly there came a fellow
As if some bloated fellow screaching at my chamber door
'Tis some wretched dun I muttered screeching at my chamber door
Only this and nothing more

Just before this morn I mention I had heard from that convention
Where they nominated Greeley and Missouri's greatest bore
And I lay there feeling, barely thinking very [illegible]
Wishing vainly, what ungainly, that Convention were no more
That the swindling, base Convention [illegible] the people [illegible]
For my heart and head were sore

I had been so fondly hoping during lask and dismal groping
In the regions of Lancaster [illegible]
That the Liberal folks could give us a [illegible] rollers in
That they never would deceive us as we would been deceived before;
But the thought of Horace Greeley and his platform made me sore
Made me very sick and sore

As I listened came the screeching through the misty morning reaching
Once again my ears beseeching screeching at my chamber door,
'Be thou creature of perdition' said I 'be a [illegible]
Worse thou art not than the vision that has haunted me [illegible]—
Vision of old Horace Greeley and the great Missouri bore,
May that vision come no more

"Enter" And there came a creature like a fowl in form and feature
With the black funeral features and the aspect of a crow
Though its eyes were hard and steely yet its face was soft and vealy,
And so like to Horace Greeley did the frightful figure grow,
That I could not help but wonder whether it were man or crow—
Vile disgusting, carrion crow

Then I said "Thou direful phantom of the carrion tribe the bantam
Wherefore hast thou come a-screeching screeching at my chamber door?
Whether ghosts from realms supernal or foul fiend from fires infernal
Write within my only journal thy cognomen I implore
Write thy name, and whence thou camest, and thy station, I implore,'
Wrote the creature "Baltimore"

Wild I screamed, "Tremendous liar! thou shall burn in endless fire,
For the black and baseless falsehood that thy claw has dared to score'
Hence with such a vile invention At the Baltimore Convention
Greeley's name will have no mention, will be heard of nevermore;
He and Brown will be forever gently laid upon the floor
And be heard of nevermore.'

Quoth the creature Pimp and pander, wherefore raisest thou thy dander?
Pleasant drunkard, gentle horse thief, honest jail bird list to me
Then I felt my heart was sinking at the creature's baleful winking,
And his horrid eyes were blinking, while he said "'Tis true you see,
True that you must starve forever, or must blindly swallow me,
Shut your eyes and swallow me

"You must take me foot and feather and must swallow all together
At my horny bill beginning ending with my horny toes'
Ah, but I was gaunt and hollow, with my hunger lean and sallow
And I made a mighty swallow though my rebel stomach rose
With my gullet choked with feathers, and my palate scratched by toes—
Shut my eyes and held my nose.

Then I thought, "Of all the fetid drugs that e er to men were noted,
For disease the deepest seated, nought like this was known before;
Sugar coated and alluring it would still to past enduring
If it doesn't do the curing, I shall never doctor more
I will die and be forgotten and will visit earth no more,
Never go to Baltimore '

Then with retchings agonizing soon I felt my stomach rising,
And a fearful sickness seized me bursting out of every pore
On my knees my form I humbled, all my inwards roared and rumbled,
And the most disgusting, tumbled, black and foul upon the floor,
All the crow that I had swallowed lay before me on the floor,
Dark and dirty on the floor

Then I said 'Of all the dishes If of beasts, or birds or fishes
Or of creeping things suspicious that a mortal ate before
Nothing ever passed my gullet, half so bad as that black pullet
And I hope some friendly bullet may outstretch me on the floor
If I ever am so crazy as to swallow any more
Crow's my weakness—nevermore

NASBY

MR NASBY GOES FORWARD TO ARRANGE—HIS EXPERIENCE—HIS CONCLUSION AS TO THE PROFITS OF THE TOUR

CHAPPAQUA (Wich is in the State of Noo York), Sept. 29, 1872—I am here safe at Chappaqua, and I am glad of it I don t live here ez I did on the road, but to offset that, I hevn't the grindin anxieties And things is better here than at first. I wuz, at first, terribly afraid uv Greeley's intense temperance principles, and wuz afeard to take a drink in his presens, but his posishen on likker is modified, the same ez it is on the tariff. He sez he is an inflexible temperance man yet, but he is willin that it shel be left to the people uv the Congressional deestriks. "You are of the people," sed he, "and the question hez not bin passed upon I drink therefore with freedom

At the time I left the party at Pittsburg it wuz decided that we shood visit the Industrial Exposishen at Cincinnati, the same at Louisville, and return thence quietly and unostentashusly by the way of Nashville, Memphis St Loois, Indianapolis, Cleveland and then throo Pennsylvany Our toor bein one uv observashun uv industry, we proposed to go quietly, and without regard to politikel effect The great and good Greeley is opposed to candidates goin about seeking ovashens, and makin speeches for votes, from pahs cars, ez the tyrant and despot Grant does

Ez our route lay throo the Cross Roads, I felt it a dooty I owed the party uv Peace and reconciliashun to go ahead and prepare the way. I hastened to Looisville and from there struck South, I notified the Dimocrisy uv every stashen wat to do, reservin the Cross Roads for my own hands

I found my little flock in condition to do anything I wanted em We raked over the roons uv the nigger skool house wich hed been burnt one night, six weeks ago and sodded the place all over nicely The post on wich we hed bin in the habit uv hangin niggers, we sawed off, and white washed it, convertin it into a most bland, innocent and conciliatory hitchin post, and we positively forbid any uv our our people from offerin any indignity to our Northern fellow citizens till after the Presidential cavalcade hed passed thro

So much for the Cross Roads Now the pint wuz to get up a proper conciliatory spectacle to greet the sage at the depot at Secessionville, our railroad stashun I hed the Confedrit flags all taken down and Union flags put in their places The depot happened to be the place uv meetin uv our Ku Klux and I hed the masks and sich taken out and put in a safe place, so that if we fail politically they kin be where they kin be got at imegitly agin, and I made sich other changes ez suggested theirselves to a muskeler intellect to put the place in shape for an impressive scene when the Presidenshel train shood pass I hed a tabloo arranged I hired four niggers at $5 a piece, to stand on the platform in an attitude, with Issaker Gavitt, Kernel McPelter, Bascom, and Deekin Pogram and clasping hands with em, while I solemnly waved the Star Spangled Banner over em, smilin sweetly over the calm and peaceful condishen uv things

The day arrived and the niggers and our men were promply on hand The toot uv the engine wuz heard in the cut above the station and the tabloo wuz organized I hed em in a semi circle, I standing just behind em, with Melissy Pogram and several of our young ladies jest back uv me on benches a smilin approvingly It wuz a tetchin tabloo The train came in and ez it stopped I yelled 'Three cheers for Horris Greeley the great Pacificator!"

"Wat in thunder is this all about' sed the conductor

"Where is Greeley? I demanded a cold sweat breakin out all over me

'He changed his mind and went to Indianapolis" sed the conductor

"Aint he about the train? demanded Issaker

No '

'Nor none of his party?'

No '

Take that, you black cuss,' sed Issaker strikin his colored friend with whom he hed bin claspin hands, a blow which would hev felled a mule 'Take that d—n you If Greeley aint a comin things is precisely ez they wuz

And Deekin Pogram seezing the flag out uv my hands knocked another uv em over with the staff and afore I could prevent it them four unfortunit colored brethren wuz pummeled out uv all semblance to their natral selves Their blood wuz up and I coodent control em Immedietly the Confedrit flags wuz replaced the Ku klux material wuz put back in its place and Bascom wrote me that the made it warm that nite for the niggers up to Garrettsville It wuz a most disastrus day for the canz

But I don t know that it wuz any worse there than it wuz all along the route We hed a half dozen uv Noo York importers on board the train and we dassent talk tariff in Pennsylvany for fear uv offendin em tho he druv them off the train before he got to Pittsburg by aboosin the free trade ideas and holdin up the benefits uv protecksion to em Comin into Pittsburg the Great Pacificator wuz a readin uv the Convenshen of sojers then in session in that city and the resolooshens they passed to support Grant, and he become enraged and consekently muddled In that condishen he got off a portion uv a speech which he hed prepared to yoose in Kentucky aboosing the sojjery and sich In Cincinnati he denied what he sed in Pittsburg wich wood hev bin well if it wuznt for the cussed telegraph and the short hand reporters, on whose heds rests cusses In Looisville he busted the North and in Jeffersonville he went back on his anti slavery noshens wich is wat we took him for and in Easton Pa he hed the infernal indiscreshen to go back on his protecckshen ideas, without wich we are helpless in Pennsylvany

To sum up the results uv the toor in form (I am nothin if not akkrit) we stand about as follows

1 Talkin protecckshen to free traders he hez driven them off

2 Talkin, publicly free trade to the protectionists, he hez driven them off

3 Talkin aboose to the soljers at Pittsburg he hez driven them off.

4 Talkin about the possibility uv his anti slavery ideas bein a mistake at Jeffersonville, to Abolitionists he hez driven them off

5 Not being a practical drinker hisself among the convivialists, he hez driven them off

6 Hevin me with him and shoven my nose into the face uv the temperance people, he hez driven them off

In short, all he hez left is my peykoolyer friends in the South, and the old and stanch Copperheads in the North He haint done nothin to offend them yet, but I am expectin every minit that he will say suthin to drive them off I hed wunst a great idea uv Greeley, but that s all gone His pride is that he is a self-made man, and come from nothin I think he did, and the result is exactly wat mite be expected from the commencement I never agin will atach myself to a talkin candidate The tongue is an unruly member, and its frickshon makes a consoomin fire

I still hurrah for Greeley for I git three square meals a day with him but the prospeck uv ever gittin into the Post Offis grows dimmer and dimmer I ain't encouraged The great and good Greeley feels safe becoz the people turn out to see him at stashuns, but good heavens, don t the ancient innocent know that a two headed calf alluz draws the biggest crowds? Men go miles to see a monstrosity, when they wouldn t go a rod to see a handsome, Apollo-like man like myself I m sick and weary uv life, and wish I wuz a nun

Our latest advices by mail from the East report the stringency in the money market as in full force A review carefully made of the reports from different parts of the world shows that some radical changes are now taking place The Journal of Commerce of the 24th ult says the end of the Franco-German war left France very poor, and Germany very rich, in money capital The cost of her own army had to be borne by France, besides the suspension of her industries In addition to these she was bound to pay to Germany a large indemnity and to yield up Alsace and Lorraine. Germany receives in money more than three times her expenditure. This naturally created a fever of speculation in Germany; and no people in the world are more inclined to speculation than the Germans. We can readily appreciate the speculation in Germany at the end of a successful war the acquisition of two provinces in which the institutions are to be changed from French to German, and the receipt of a large indemnity This alone has created great changes. The Germans, finding the excitement of speculation at home, will not send their means here so freely London has been a large depository of German money The bankers of London are evidently alarmed, as the Bank of England rate has been advanced to 6 per cent. As it has rapidly advanced to this rate from 2½ per cent, it may go higher Any further advance would probably affect New York funds very seriously The English have the power to withdraw a large amount of money from this market The first effect, which is now being distinctly felt throughout the whole country is the difficulty in selling bonds of new railroads now in process of construction As the easy realizing of railroad securities has been a feature of our markets for some years, the banks have advanced money very freely in anticipation of such negotiations, and we believe some banks are encumbered in this way The banks are, no doubt safe but the merchants now feel the need of the money The fact is we are testing our speed to an unattainable rate The best horse in the world will break if you endeavor to drive him under 2 17 The only remedy is to rein in

The stringency in the money market has driven some adventurous spirits to move for an extra issue of greenbacks The original issue was $400 000,000 Mr McCulloch, under the authority of Congress commenced in 1866 to contract the currency at the rate of $4,000 000 a month At the end of eleven months he had contracted $44,000 000, when Congress passed an act suspending any further contraction The currency redeemed was not destroyed and Mr Boutwell claims the power to reissue it The evidence of this is that Mr Boutwell did at one time issue $3 000 000 of this currency and afterwards retired it If therefore, Congress leaves the law to be thus construed by the Secretary without rebuke the reissue may be made at any time

An Eastern exchange remarks that the worst evidence of a stringent money market is the low price of grain With a known scarcity in Europe grain should command a good price. Freights are high and with a large supply pushing forward they will remain high during the short season of navigation but with an easy money market the grain would be held back and freights might be forced down

Importations

The Commercial Reporter gives the monthly importations for the year which aggregate as follows Agricultural Implements, 10 711 pkgs; Bag and bagging 1 019 pkgs Boots and Shoes 9 503 cases; Canned goods 13 337 cases; Candles 14 456 bxs Cement, [illegible] bbls; Lime 10 318 bbls Plaster [illegible] bbls, Cigars 1 380 cases; Cordage 2 470 pkgs Coffee [illegible] sks and cases; Crockery 2 151 pkgs; Dry goods 8,452 pkgs Drugs, Chemicals &c, 5 012 pkgs Fish 2,219 kits pkgs and half bbls 5 040 pkgs and cases Gunpowder 6 811 pkgs and kegs; Hardware 8 587 pkgs Iron tons, pig 1 447; Hoop bdls, 5 934 bars 25 343 R R rails, 27 589; R R material, tons 48 49[illegible] pkgs do 11 830; Pipes, 2,061; Malt Liquors pkgs, 1 855, Tin boxes 4,02[illegible] pig 521; Lead in pkgs and pig, 428, Tinware pkgs, 1 220 Zinc; pks 178 Molasses and Syrups, pkgs 2,212 kegs 18 0[illegible]; Nails 13 067 kegs, Naval stores, Oakum 112 bales; Pitch 206 bbls Rosin — bbls Turpentine 1 077 cases Provisions hams 188 pkgs, bacon 606 pkgs, shoulders, [illegible] pkgs; lard 1 528 pkgs and cases (the figures on provisions only cover the last six months) Rice 2 9[illegible] sks and 5 528 mats Salt 15 141 pkgs and 37 tons Soap 9 9[illegible] bxs Starch 2 571 pkgs Spices 3 005 pks Sugar 110 114 bbls 7 948 half bbls 1 3[illegible] bxs 18 368 kegs; 1 805 mats and 1 437 sks Spirits, whisky [illegible]714 pkgs and 900 cases Brandy 176 pkgs and 1 011 cases Bitters 2 8[illegible] cases Teas 4 186 pkgs Tobacco 4 pkgs Wines 2,027 cases and 1 029 pkgs

There are doubtless some articles not included in the above list but it serves to show proximately the business done at this place in the importing trade during the period of former years as well as nearly every item shows a considerable increase In some aspects of the case this increase is a matter of encouragement but in others it is the contrary for among the importations a large proportion of some articles which might be produced in our own State were its resources properly developed But as long as this drain of money continues from our market to purchase manufactures the raw material of which abounds here at home so long will we suffer from returning times of tightness in financial matters

Home Finances

Our local money market though cont [illegible] scarcely so much depressed as the week it was was feared Our capitalists and bankers generally are conducting matters with due caution and if we escape an great crash which crushes fortunes and shakes general commerce from its list it will be due to the absence of that rampant spirit of speculation which has prevailed in many other cities of the Union Though it is admitted as it has been often said that the stringency is great yet so far through the pressure our merchants have been remarkably well In nearly all instances they have been able to meet their liabilities [illegible]

Produce Market

The Wheat market in all the Eastern grain centres seems to be in a very dull state and the movement of the crop is much lighter than it usually is at this date [illegible] Our own market [illegible] Buyers are [illegible] at the reduced prices of $1 [illegible] Through prices [illegible] Liverpool [illegible]

Oats [illegible] supply with a very fair local demand

In the produce lines of this valley generally rates have been [illegible] and we have no changes to note to day

The week [illegible] month [illegible] with [illegible] business [illegible] than have prevailed for a long time There is but little doubt now that [illegible]

Miscellaneous

Advices by mail on the 24th report the New York banks in better condition as to reserve, holding at last report $8 [illegible] above the legal requirements

The easing money in New York produced as alleged by the prospect of the issue of $44 000 000 greenbacks is estimated to have advanced the value of stocks in Wall street $50 000 000

The stock of grains in the Chicago elevators on the 24th ult was 4 048 771 bushels including 1 3[illegible] bushels Wheat 2 7[illegible] 550 bushels Corn 721 850 bushels Oats 176,310 bushels Rye and 471 337 bushels Barley

The New York city warehouses contained on the 24th 137 000 bushels Wheat 3 432 000 bushels Corn 2 84[illegible] 000 bushels Oats 30 000 bushels Rye and 105 000 bushels Barley

The supply of grain at the principal points of accumulation in the United States and Canada on the 12th ult was 27 2[illegible],293 bushels, embracing 6,410 474 bushels Wheat, 18 039 850 bushels Corn 5 255 741 bushels Oats, and 2 104 291 bushels Barley

The total value of imports at New York city from December 31 1871 to October 21 1872, was $4[illegible] 131 505 This is $41 [illegible] 400 in excess of the imports at the same port for the corresponding period in 1871

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc Skin Diseases of years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

DR GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation they annually suffer until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late Send them immediately to DR GIBBON, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self-abuse This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances disposition to shun society, loss of memory hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the faces, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of the fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions By inclosing Ten Dollars coin, in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co. a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy too work at their trades Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patients letters, etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his offices of his ability to treat diseases that he professes to cure

Address DR J F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco Post Office Box 1,957

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.
